He Didn't Care.

Housewife—My dear, I see a two-column article in the Sunday paper about how flour is being adulterated. Husband—Well, I don't care, nor need you. We can't get nothing wrong with our stumick if we take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. All druggists sell it, or see E. Howard.

NOTICE.

The regular annual meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank will be held at its banking rooms at Chickasha on Tuesday, the 8th day of January, 1901, between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock.

Turks Slaughtering Christians.

Vienna, Dec. 19.—Massacres of Christians by Turkish soldiers in the domain of the Sultan have been resumed. In Macedonia the scenes which horrified the civilized world during the Armenian trouble of a few years ago are, it is stated on the authority of Austrian representatives, being reenacted.

The Austrian Consul at Salonica, Macedonia, sends the first definite information of the massacres. He states that Christians in the districts of Ipek, Gostivar and Giljan are terrorized; that massacres are of daily occurrence, and that there is no security for life and property.

Eighteen villages, the Consul reports, have been completely destroyed by fanatic Macedonians. The native Christian priests were tortured and many converts killed.

The Consul estimates that more than 300 Christians thus far have been slain. Appeals to the Turkish authorities to check these new horrors have met with no response.

Ardmore, Dec. 21.—Acting under orders from Indian Agent Shoemaker, Capt. Jack Ellis, chief of the Indian police, Wednesday night ejected Joseph Weiss, a merchant of this city. Weiss was taken to Gainesville and released. He returned home today. The police said he refused to pay the tribal 1 per cent tax.

Queen Victoria does not say much in her speeches, but it must be remembered that she does not have to be re-elected.

All men imagine that they talk less than women, but say more. Lots of men, as a matter of fact, talk a good deal, but say absolute nothing.

A letter from Jack Stillwell, once of Anadarko, and well known here, dated Cody, Wyo., to Dan Peery of the El Reno Globe, says he is not dead. His many friends here will be glad to know that he is not.

Crucified Every Christian.

Vienna, Dec. 20.—Further details of the massacre of Greek Christians in Macedonia by Turks have been received from Salonica. It is said that outrages more horrible than those inflicted upon the Armenians a few years ago were committed. In the village of Bitush in Northern Albania a horde of Mohammedans crucified every Christian male, fixing them to trees with stakes driven through hands and feet. Many of the women were carried off to Mohammedan harems. Children were chopped up before the parents' eyes.

At Guma, south of Bitush, women were tortured before the eyes of the husbands and fathers; the men were terribly mutilated, having the ears, fingers, toes and limbs cut off and many children were drowned.

Worse Than Ever

New York, Dec. 21.—A dispatch to The World from London says:

Midnight—The general outlook in the political clubs of a widespread rebellion in Cape Colony. This is believed to be the cause of the Lord Salisbury's gloomy speech on Tuesday.

The situation is regarded with deep alarm, as it is feared that Lord Kitchener's supplies are in danger of being cut off.

Lord Kitchener is said to have sent a dispatch demanding 30,000 more mounted men as essential to the security of the British position in South Africa. No practical scheme for procuring these reinforcements has yet been framed by the war office.

Grading Outfit Leaves Granite

The grading outfit of the big railroad contracting firm of Orbeck and Lee that has been stored in their immense warehouse here since the completion of the work on the Mangum extension will be loaded in a few days and moved, presumably to the new Rock Island extension from Liberal, Kansas.

Twelve cars were brought in last night and the work commenced at once.—Granite Enterprise.

This may be coming to Chickasha, but we have no definite news to that effect. The signs point to an early building of the Pauls Valley branch.
